ASTIGMATISM.

What it is, and How Corrected.

Asigmatism or Irregular Vision is one of the most common of all the refractive errors. It is due to the irregular curvature of the eye known as the Cornea. Of course no instrument is sufficient to correct it, but in the hands of a thoroughly efficient and competent eye specialist the optical condition is revealed, the exact condition of the eye in a way that nothing else can. If your eyes need attention have DR. J. T. JOHNSON to put them under this wonderful treatment. Office hours 8:30 to 12:30; 2 to 6. 3024 S. Elm St.

ANOTHER PACKED AUDIENCE

At The State Normal and Industrial College.

TO HEAR GRADUATING ESSAYS

Some Exceptionally Fine Papers
Read—Class Song of '99, Composed by a Member of Class.

The seventh annual graduating exercises at the State Normal and Industrial College were held in the college auditorium last night. The exercises were opened by singing the state song, The Old North State. As the inspiring music from hundreds of young lady voices filled the auditorium the hearts of the visitors must have swelled with pride that such an institution graced North Carolina soil and blessed North Carolina womanhood. The graduating class on this occasion was the largest since the foundation of the college, numbering 39. Miss R. Walland Sheppard, of Forsyth county, it was announced, had been chosen president of the graduating class and would announce the program for the evening. Miss Sheppard performed her duties in a charming and graceful manner.

The entire class had prepared interesting essays; but for the lack of time all could not be read and six representatives were chosen, which we announce as follows:

Silent Forces—Miss Mary Collins, Halifax county.

The Song of the Shore—Miss Lewis Dull, Forsyth county.

The Cry of the Children—Miss Susie Baker Saunders, Pitt county.

The Crowning Race—Miss Sudie L. Middleton, Duplin county.

The Flesh Pots of Egypt—Miss Josephine Laxton, Burke county.

Flood-ties and Ebb-ties—Miss Bessie Eshelwyn Moody, Buncombe county.

Between the third and fourth essays a charming recitation was given by Miss Lucy McGee Glenn, subject, "The Mes-sage," by Adelaide Proctor.

Notes were taken of each class essay, with the intention of publishing them but they would fall so far short of doing the young ladies justice that they are withheld. Nothing short of a publication of each paper in full would be proper. It may be said, however, that they were all of a high order and show training of the mind. We have rarely seen such close attention paid the reading of graduating essays. It is accounted for by the exceedingly interesting manner in which each subject was presented.

The class song of 1899 closed the exercises of the evening and thirty-nine bright young ladies, having completed their college days, began life in earnest. Through a courtesy of a member of the class we are permitted to print the class song, which was composed by Miss Flora Patterson, of Moore county:

(CLASS SONG)
Come boys! hearts so strong and true,
Of '99, of '99;

The time has come to say adieu
To scenes we soon must leave behind
Four years that have been arly run
With battles to be fought and won
Another life has begun
For '99, for '99.

But ere upon this life we go,
Ere we cross the parting line,
A song to Alma Mater, O,
From loyal hearts of '99.
No solemn lay to thee we sing,
No parting dirge to thee we bring
In martial strains let farewell ring
From '99, from '99.

O Alma Mater, hear the song
Of '99, of '99.

When other daughters' round you
throng,
Remember those of '99,
With love for thee our hearts e'er
swell;

In words alone we say farewell,
Enthroned forever will you dwell
Within the hearts of '99.

To our sisters within your walls,
May your lights e'er brightly shine
Whatever fate to them befalls,
May they remember '99.
Our days with them so near complete
Will ever be a memory sweet,
In coming years oft here they'll meet
Their old, old friends of '99.

Why do we linger with a sigh,
Why this sad regret we find?
For who would dare say "good-bye"
From '99, from '99.

"In union there's strength" has been
our guide,
As we have labored side by side,
'Twill keep us one while'er beside,
We'll be the class of '99.

TODAY'S EXERCISES.

The exercises today were opened with a musical program by the First Regiment Band. After four selections the audience sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," and prayer was offered by Rev. Dr. Clapp, president of Catawba College. The speaker of the day, Judge Walter Clark, was presented by Dr. Melver in appropriate words, telling why, among other things, the constitution of the state was presented to the graduating class.

JUDGE CLARK'S ADDRESS.

We have only space to make a few extracts from Judge Clark's able address:

Young ladies of the graduating class:

The morning papers mention that I am to deliver the annual address on this occasion. This is a mistake as I have only been requested to present to you the copies of the State and Federal Constitutions which are appropriately given to your class and to make a few remarks pertinent to that ceremony.

It has been ungenerally said by some one, a crusty old bachelor I am sure, that Mohammed was right in saying that women had no souls and he proved it to his own satisfaction somewhat in this way: "Now you know," he said, "it is stated in the Book of Revelation that there was silence in heaven for the space of half an hour and you just know that no woman could have been there."

Now I know ladies can listen half an hour if the speaker is worth listening to but if I should give myself away, put myself out of court, as it were, and I shall not attempt it.

This college stands as the exponent of the tardy effort of the state of North Carolina has made to fulfill the pledge given in her constitution for the higher education of your sex. It is a happy coincidence that this commencement which means so much for the welfare and advancement of the women of North Carolina falls on this day when nearly a third of the population of the globe are uniting to do the highest honor to one of your sex.

Truly this is woman's day when so great an empire as England, whose "far flung battle line" belts the world around with steel, rouses itself to do this high honor to a woman—that woman is one of the best and purest sovereigns this world has known—Victoria, Queen of Great Britain and Empress of India. Not in all her royal line tracing back as it does to Charlemagne and Alfred and William the Normal has there been one among her predecessors who has equalled her virtues or attained her place in the hearts of her people.

After this bright example of the fitness of woman for the place of the world's highest command, can I or any man waste time in pleading the capacity of woman or her equality with man? Women bear their full share of the trials and sorrows of life, why have they not an equal right to its honor and its enjoyments?

That they are physically inferior was reason for inferiority of station and of rights in the days when brute force governed and savagery was the condition of man. But such doctrines are out of place when brain not brawn rules the world.

I shall turn to this constitution to see how far your rights have been recognized.

You will find in this constitution that you have no political rights but in practice you will find that education and intelligence will give you views more expression in the ballot box than is really possessed by the uneducated of the other sex who are entitled to vote.

You will find this constitution guarantees to children of both sexes a public school education and to the youth of the state, without a distinction of sex, a university education free of charge for tuition, as far as practicable and and it is entirely practicable, as well as a better public school system, whenever an enlightened and instructed public opinion shall find expression in legislative action which shall secure the necessary funds by resorting to sources of revenues which can best afford the burden but which have hitherto escaped all taxation.

You will find that the constitution gives to both single and married women as free and full control of their property as it does to men, but that married women have not yet enjoyed their rights in that regard and are not likely to do so until your sex shall take sufficient interest in the matter to make sufficient interest in the matter to make itself felt by appropriate legislation.

It is as necessary for women as for men to "know their rights" and then "knowing them, dare maintain them." When North Carolina wakes to the full proportions of her duty in the education of her children and her youth and performs it then and not till then will she take the stand which her natural resources and the native capacity of her people entitles her to take among her sister states, close up to the head of the procession.

PRESENTATION OF BIBLES.
After Judge Clark's speech, which was the annual address and presentation of constitutions combined, Rev. Dr. J. C. Rowe, pastor of West Market Street Church, presented the Bibles. He said it was proper and right to present copies of the constitution telling the class of their earthly citizenship, it was also proper to present them with the word of God telling them of their heavenly inheritance. The constitution is the wisdom of statesmen of many generations, the Bible is the wisdom of God. He exhorted the members to take heed and read it and to teach it. A most beautiful and appropriate speech throughout.

The following young ladies received certificates for proficiency in stenography, the figures indicating the number of words written per minute: Misses Mame Perry, 80; Carrie Matthews, 80; Mary Sancey, 80; Lea Oetger, 80; Fannie Faircloth, 80; Myrtle Scarborough, 80; Mattie Moore, 100; Frances Leslie, 100; Alice Syme, 120; Georgia Simpson, 135.

DIPLOMAS PRESENTED.
President Melver presented the diplomas to the graduating class and his remarks upon doing so deserve a place high up among the good things said during the commencement. One thing he especially requested the class to do, i. e. to teach the people to know this college, what its mission is and what it is doing.

Benediction by Rev. T. J. Ogburn, of the M. P. Church.

TONIGHT'S ENTERTAINMENT.
The entertainment tonight will be for the benefit of the new building fund which it is proposed to erect for libraries, society hall, Y. W. C. A. hall, etc. The First Regiment Band will make music and a charming play will be rendered by the young ladies. This is not a part of the commencement proper, but rather an independent movement to aid in carrying out the plans proposed. Admission will be 25 cents; 50 cents for reserved seats. A large attendance will be out and a splendid evening of entertainment will be had.

A. & M. COLLEGE.

The Exercises Monday Evening Were Very Interesting.

The program at the A. & M. College Monday evening was rendered by the members of Y. M. C. A. and Y. P. S. C. E. The main feature was the address by Rev. H. A. Gibson, pastor St. James Presbyterian church, of this city. "The True Goal of Manhood," was his subject. He is a very able speaker and a deep thinker and he delivered himself to the satisfaction of all present.

Tuesday evening, May 23rd was the closing of the Eclectic and Collegiate Literary societies. The college was not able to seat the immense crowd of people that came to witness the excellent program. The instrumental solo by R. W. Richardson, of Wilmington, held the audience almost spell-bound for ten minutes.

The program consisted of declarations, essays, recitations, compositions and orations. The composition, "Independence of Character" by W. A. Green, of Wilmington, and the oration by J. C. Joyce, Winston, subject "The Effect of Invention Upon Civilization," deserve much credit.

The debate: Resolved, "That a tariff for revenue only is more beneficial to the United States than one for protection." Affirmative, R. L. Edwards, negative, Martin L. Newby. Both speakers showed that much preparation had been made. Excellent music was a special attraction of the evening. Rev. J. C. Walters, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., delivered the annual address on the subject, "The World is Moving On." It was listened to with much interest.

After the program all were invited to visit the departments of domestic science, chemistry, botany, mechanical building and dairy at which places there are on exhibition articles of interest and usefulness made by the students. Every one went away highly pleased.

Miss Mary Weaver's Funeral.
The funeral of Miss Mary Weaver was held from the Washington Street church instead of from the residence as announced yesterday. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Egbert W. Smith. The large number present on such short notice and the abundance and richness of the floral offerings showed in what esteem Miss Weaver was held. The Cone Export & Commission Company, of which company she was for years a faithful employee, sent elaborate and beautiful floral offerings as did also the Baptist Young Peoples' Union. Besides these there were other beautiful designs sent by a host of friends. The Cone Export Co. further showed their respect by closing their offices and attending the funeral in a body. The mound under which the body rests was literally covered with flowers. As the pastor said in his remarks "the flowers will soon fade but the love that prompted the beautiful offerings will last on through the eternities." She was a faithful follower of Jesus Christ and an earnest worker in the church. For years she was a member of the choir of Washington Street church. As her spirit was about to take its flight she heard the singing of the angels and said "Oh, so sweet, so sweet." Her voice will never be heard on earth again but she has joined the celestial choir around the throne of God.

The Philippine War Continues to Monotonously Drag Along.

LAWTON ARRIVES AT MALOLOS

After Marching One Hundred and Twenty Miles in Twenty Days.
The Killed and Wounded.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Manila, May 21—Lawton's rear guard, consisting of detachments of the Third and Twenty-second Infantry, while escorting a signal corps train from San Miguel to Baling today, had a running fight with insurgents for the whole distance of ten miles. One American was killed and one officer and fourteen privates wounded. Twenty insurgents were captured.

LAWTON'S MARCH.

Manila, May 21—Lawton, with most of his troops, arrived at Malolos today, having marched one hundred and twenty miles in twenty days, had twenty-two fights, captured twenty-eight towns, and destroyed three hundred thousand bushels of rice. Loss, six men killed, thirty-one wounded. It is estimated the insurgents killed four hundred insurgents and wounded twice as many.

LAKE CITY'S PRECIPITANT.

The Administration Refuses to Restore The Postoffice.

Special to The Telegram.

Washington, May 21—It is announced that Representative James Norton, of South Carolina, who represents the sixth district will be in Washington for a few days. Mr. Norton's district contains Lake City, South Carolina, which has been kept prominently before the public for the past year or more on account of the murder of Postmaster Baker and child, and the subsequent closing of the postoffice and the trial of the alleged participants in the lynching. The purpose of the visit of the South Carolina congressman to the national capital at this time, is said to be for the purpose of making another effort to have the office at Lake City reopened. Persons living there are put to much trouble and inconvenience on account of the lack of mail facilities, being obliged to go several miles to deposit their letters and other mail matter. They are prohibited by the regulations of the department from even putting their mail matter on the mail cars as the trains pass through the town. This is especially troublesome to the business men of Lake City, and efforts have been made at different times to induce the postmaster general to reconsider his action and to reopen the office. Some time ago Congressman Norton made an earnest effort to have the office reopened, and for a while it was thought something would be done. Had the recent trial of the alleged participants in the difficulty at Lake City not resulted in a disagreement, there is reason to believe that the postoffice department would have given orders for the re-establishment of the Lake City postoffice. As the trial of these parties, however, will take place again during the fall term of the court, there is doubt expressed at the department as to whether action will be taken prior to the new trial. It is said that Congressman Norton will merely ask that the office be reopened and will not make any recommendation concerning the appointment of a new postmaster so far as the candidate is concerned.

South Carolina people in Washington are of the opinion that it is an act of base injustice to the people of Lake City, who are as law abiding as any community in the United States, and who had nothing to do with the killing of Baker and his child, to keep this office closed, and thus deprive them of the mail privileges accorded to other cities and towns of the United States. If the postmaster general does not grant the desired relief, it is reported that the matter may be taken by Mr. Norton personally to the president of the United States, and that he will make an effort to enlist his interest in the matter.

The floral parade which takes place this afternoon will be one of the most beautiful spectacles of the peace jubilee. In line will be many handsome floral-decorated carriages and other equipages. The celebration of the peace jubilee, as announced the other day, has been gotten up somewhat along the lines of a May festival, and the committee in charge has taken pains to adopt features which have in other cities contributed largely to the success of a May festival. The weather for several days past has not been all that might be desired for a pageant of the character which will take place this afternoon, being a little too chilly to give the proper effectiveness to a floral parade. The weather promises to remain clear, however.

It is said that there is some idea on the part of the committee of having a sort of May festival, and floral parade during the late spring, or early summer, each year, and with this object in view, they have watched with much interest the success of the parade this afternoon.

A gentleman from North Carolina stated the other day that the movement started in Virginia for the election of senators by a direct vote of the people was being taken up in the state of North Carolina and that already it was attracting considerable attention among democratic leaders of the state. The newspapers too in North Carolina are taking up the discussion, and the gentleman stated that as is the case in the Old Dominion the majority of the newspapers appear to favor the proposed change.

Miss Elizabeth Anderson, of Wilson North Carolina, is in Washington taking in the sights of the peace jubilee. While here she is the guest of Miss Maud Tyre, of Vermont avenue. Miss Anderson will remain in Washington for about two weeks.

Mr. C. N. Cone, of Greensboro, North Carolina, is in Washington on a business trip. He is stopping while in Washington at the National hotel. He will remain in the city until after the peace jubilee.

THE SOUTHERN CHAMPION.

The speech of Ex-Governor Northern, of Georgia, before the Congressional Club of Boston, was a masterly effort, both rhetorically and in complete vindication of the justice of the south in regard to lynchings, etc. With the courage and the strength of a Spartan warrior and the address, the learning, and the eloquence of an Athenian ambassador, he went into the stronghold of northern sectionalism, the manufactory of nearly all of the venom that has been hurled at the southern people in recent years, and told the South's tale in the most burning and sublime English, smiting into discomfiture those that have misrepresented us, and awaking in those who have not understood us now and higher opinions of the manhood that lies south of Mason and Dixon's line. His description of the recent deplorable occurrence in Georgia was terrible; his depiction of the provocation which sent the black soul of Sam Hose to eternity, was far more than terrible—it was horrible, soul-harrowing. He placed justice where it belongs, and those theorists who have condemned southern mobs for lawlessness inspired "purely out of wanton hate for the negro" were silenced into mortification and shame when the loathing particulars were "brought home" to them.

Governor Northern is a great and a good, a brave and a brainy man, a type of that line which is represented by the Badgers and Mangums and Vances. Georgia should feel proud of him. He is a great honor to the South. It is with great regret that we have not the space to reproduce his great address in the Telegram in full.

The editor of the Raleigh Times-Visitor is an expansionist. He seems to think that Dewey's driving away of the Spaniards who had not dominion over the Philippines, gave us a title to the islands. The Times-Visitor says:

The assertion is often heard that we bought the Philippines for $20,000,000 from Spain. This we did not do. We paid Spain $20,000,000 because our peace commissioners at Paris agreed that this amount was due Spain for the internal improvements she had constructed on the island. We did not buy the sovereignty over the Philippines. Admiral George Dewey won for the United States that sovereignty and the valor of America's manhood is now firmly establishing our nation's dominion there that we may lead the benighted Filipinos into the light of Christian civilization.

Which of the two are the more benighted in the matter of Christian civilization—the Filipino or the average American soldier—is a question which admits of debate.

The coolest, most impudent and unconcerned set of rascals we have ever heard of are those Filipino commissioners who are sojourning at Manila with the excuse of arranging terms of peace with the Americans. They drive about the city decked in blue coats, scarlet pantaloons and gold lace, while the rabble goes wild over them. These "statesmen" feel far more concern for a feast or a dance than for the chained liberties of their countrymen.

A Clever Trick.
It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The coolest, most impudent and unconcerned set of rascals we have ever heard of are those Filipino commissioners who are sojourning at Manila with the excuse of arranging terms of peace with the Americans. They drive about the city decked in blue coats, scarlet pantaloons and gold lace, while the rabble goes wild over them. These "statesmen" feel far more concern for a feast or a dance than for the chained liberties of their countrymen.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Hoax—"What! quarreling with your wife over pin-money. That's mighty small of you." Joak—"Not when you consider that there's diamonds in the pins she wants the money for."

If you suffer from tenderness or fullness on the right side, pains under shoulder-blade, constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, and feel dull, heavy and sleepy, your liver is torpid and congested. DeWitt's Little Early Risers will cure you promptly, pleasantly and permanently by removing the congestion and causing the bile ducts to open and flow naturally. They are good pills. Howard Gardner.

"A word to the wise is sufficient" and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft-repeated experience of trust-worthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in this drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The deaf mute is sure to be handy at a debate.

Little, neglected scratches and wounds frequently result in blood-poisoning. Better heal them quickly with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, a thoroughly antiseptic application with a record of always curing piles, old ulcers, sores, cuts, wounds and skin diseases. Howard Gardner.

Nell—"Did you meet Miss Gotrox's fauce?" Belle—"Yes; he's no Italian count." "How do you know?" "He shakes your hand around in a circle as if you were an organ."

Nobody knows woman like woman. Men go to medical colleges, study books and listen to lectures. They learn indirectly of the diseases of women, but they are men and can never fully understand the ailments, the sufferings, the agonies of mothers, wives and sisters. A woman knows. Mrs. Boisvert knows. She has passed through the trials and tribulations of her sex. She has been near by when her sisters suffered. She has seen them relieved and cured with Wine of Cardui. Is it any wonder that thousands of other women recommend it. They know. They have actual experience to prompt them. They spread the tidings from mouth to mouth, telling how Wine of Cardui helps young girls, helps the weak of all ages, helps and cures all womanly ills.

"What a difference in the suffering at time of childbirth"

where Dr. R. V. Pierce's medicines are used. Mrs. Edmond Jacobs, of Hargroveville, Johnson County, Ind., "I had not heard of Dr. Pierce's medicines until three years ago when I was confined, so had to suffer almost death. Dr. Pierce's medicines saved me on my feet without two persons holding me.
The baby was a boy weighing nine and three quarters pounds,
and for some weeks after his birth I suffered severe pain. Last fall, following the advice of a neighbor, my husband
bought me Doctor
Pierce's Favorite Prescription which I took during the winter, and in March, 1898, I gave birth
to a baby boy
weighing ten and
three-quarter pounds. I was only in labor two hours and was on my feet without help until thirty minutes before my baby was born. He is now three months old and weighs nineteen pounds.
I know it was Dr. Pierce's medicines that saved me from suffering. I advise all women to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, also his Pleasant Pellets, if necessary.
Following the advice of a neighbor,"
What a weight of confidant confidence
there is in those six words. The neighbor had tried the "Favorite Prescription" and recommended it. Mrs. Jacobs had also tried it and proved its wonderful properties and now she recommends it. Beside such testimony as this its maker's experience is a fact. Her neighbor's experience is a fact.
The written experiences of 200,000 other women are facts. There is no theory about it. There can be no question about it. In every neighborhood in this broad land there are women who have been cured by the "Favorite Prescription." It has cured more cases of female complaint than any other medicine for women combined. It is the only medicine of its kind invented by a skilled specialist in medicine—a regular graduate physician of more than thirty years' actual experience.

ONLY THE CURE FOR SCROFULA.

S. S. S. Is the Only Remedy Equal to this Obstinate Disease.

The serious consequences to which Scrofula surely leads should impress upon those afflicted with it the vital importance of wasting no time upon treatment which can not possibly effect a cure. In many cases where the wrong treatment has been relied upon, complicated glandular swellings have resulted, for which the doctors insist that a dangerous surgical operation is necessary.

Mr. H. E. Thompson, of Milledgeville, Ga., writes: "A bad case of Scrofula broke out on the glands of my neck, which had to be lanced and caused me much suffering. I was treated for a long while, but the physicians were unable to cure me, and my condition was as bad as when I began my treatment. Many blood remedies were used, but without effect. Some one recommended S. S. S., and I began to improve as soon as I had taken a few bottles.
Continuing the remedy, I was soon cured permanently, and have never had a sign of the disease to return." Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—Is the only remedy which can promptly reach and cure obstinate, deep-seated blood diseases. By relying upon it, and not experimenting with the various so-called tonics, etc., all sufferers from blood troubles can be promptly cured instead of enduring years of suffering which gradually but surely undermines the constitution. S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and never fails to cure Scrofula, Eczema, Cancer, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Boils, Tetter, Pimples, Sores, Ulcers, etc. Insist upon S. S. S., nothing else takes its place.
Books on blood and skin diseases will be mailed free to any address by the Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

A Comedy at the Hague.

We wonder whether any thinking man expects a really serious result from the peace congress at the Hague.
To us, it seems fantastically optimistic to cherish such a hope. To us, the whole project seems chimerical and impracticable. That the czar of Russia has made the proposition in good faith, we are quite willing to believe. That he actually thinks it will lead to anything tangible, we more than doubt. How many European nations can afford to disarm? England is willing, for her army is always small. Italy is willing, because the expense of her military establishment is simply ruinous. Austria and Spain would be benefited, if they had some other means of providing for their favorites and dependents and some assurance that disarmament would not leave them a prey to the rapacity of their neighbors. But how about Germany and France? Both are essentially military nations. Germany without its army would be like a production of "Hamlet" with the prince of Denmark left out. France without her would present the spectacle of a nation composed largely of women.
Emperor William could not occupy himself entirely in writing plays and composing symphonies. France without scandal and excitement would be left beyond description. Does any rational human being believe, for one moment, that Germany and France intend to disarm? Indeed, it is conse-quentially that any European nation could be induced to trust its neighbors to such an extent? The mere idea is proposterous.

The theory that appeals most strongly to us in this connection is that the czar has proposed a general disarmament,
first, because he, of all sovereigns, can take such a step with profit and security, and, secondly, because it will further some private purpose of his own to assemble the nations and to put them on record with reference to a very showy if impracticable scheme of altruism. The Russian czar has been for years held up to odium of the Christian world as the espacial representative of tyranny, authoritarianism, militarism, and arrogant brute force. Children are taught to look upon him as the type of violence and despotism. Asked to point out a land where liberty is unknown and over which a monster bloodier and more abhorrent than the Minotaur rules with iron and relentless hand, the average schoolboy would say "Russia,"
without a moment's hesitation.
It is not difficult to realize the cynical ardor with which the present czar has set in motion the machinery of this philanthropic propaganda, or the sarcastic flash he will derive from the sufferings of those nations which do not dare to openly repudiate the olive branch he has ironically offered them
and yet would rather face ten wars
than to accept it.—Washington Post.

If you have piles, CURE them. No use undergoing horrible operations that simply remove the result of the disease without disturbing the disease itself. Place your confidence in De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. It has never failed to cure OTHERS. It will not fail to cure YOU. Howard Gardner.

Humorist—"I have here a joke, sir, about a fellow who's dead broke and —"Editor—"One minute. Were you ever dead broke?" "Fortunately, never, sir." "Ah! I thought not, for you wouldn't see anything funny
about it."

Pneumonia, la grippe, coughs, colds, croup and whooping-cough readily yield to One Minute Cough Cure. Use this remedy in time and save a doctor's bill—or the undertaker's. Howard Gardner.

"Do you think that we can run this war much longer?" queried the doubtful Filipino. "Oh, yes," replied Aguineldo, who appeared to have his second wind; "we can at least run it several miles longer."

People who have once taken DeWitt's Little Early Risers will never have anything else. They are the "fa-

head and Gilmer townships will attend
for the purpose of assessing and listing property for state and county

Millions Given Away.
It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The prop-

given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are promptly cured by it. Call on C. F. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free,

THE OLD REBS

Gave a Rebel yell and carried Charleston by storm. They have the right of way on all occasions; and in fact they are entitled to it. Just so with

Harry-Belk Brothers Co.

They have carried Greensboro by storm—captured the whole city and country with out encountering the slightest obstacle. We did not raise a Rebel yell to accomplish what we have done, but simply turned loose our "Gallin gun" and she led the woods. The same was loaded with panic goods. Railroad wrecks and the like brought them down at long range. To see the crowds flocking to our store you would think we had another Confederate

RE-UNION

here, but it is this Cuban warfare among prices liberates our bargain counters and, my, the way the way the masses are accepting the situation—freedom from the galling yoke of high prices and big profits is enough to stir the country from center to circumference. "Watch out!" Our buyer has been in New York and Boston for some time closing out shoe manufacturers, clothing merchants, dry goods stocks, etc., at often less than the cost of making. Going north at this season gives us a decided advantage over others, for all manufacturers are anxious to clean up the stocks on hand before the fall season opens. Few goods piling in every day.

Listen! Checks 25c, calico 7c, bleaching 4c, towels 25c, lawns 2c, ladies' patent sandals 68c, worth $1.50; ladies' and children's Oxfords and slippers 25c up. Never before had goods so cheap. All we ask is for you to see them.
It is like picking up dollars. We have bargains to offer you all our store, so if dollars are worth anything to you, you can save them by looking through our stock of dry goods, notions, shoes, hats, gents' furnishings, etc., much easier than you can make them, no matter how easy they come.

So hide out, little ones, and give the people the right of way to

HARD ON RETAILERS.

Mayor Taylor Makes Them Give Good Bond—Other Matters.

The docket of Mayor Taylor's court was heavy again yesterday afternoon. Officer Jeffries had secured evidence in four new cases against William Murphy, for retailing and the mayor fixed an additional bond of $200, in default of which the ex-retailer went to jail. He will have to answer for six cases in the superior court.

Charlie Booz, whose trial was postponed from Monday, proved that he had purchased his liquor for another party and was released.

James Holland, who dispenses whiskey for Jane Black, was arraigned and bound over in bond of $300, in default of which he is keeping company with Murphy.

Morris Austin and Charles Cecil were to answer to the charge of having been engaged in an affray. Austin contributed $3 to the city treasury and Cecil was dismissed.

Fannie Moore, colored, charged with indecent conduct, was bound over, and in default of $50 bond, went to jail.

Clara Chaffin, drunk and disorderly, contributed $7.

Kindergarten Closes Friday.

The Kindergarten, which has been so successfully conducted in the basement of Westminster Presbyterian church, by Miss Meta Beall, will close Friday, the exercises beginning at 10 o'clock. Though not elaborate, the program will be very interesting—being rendered by little tots from 3 to 5 years of age. We are requested to state that the public generally and the parents of the children and friends of the school, especially, are invited.
